

CHARLES E. SCHMIDT
COLLEGE OF MEDICINE
Florida Atlantic University

STUDENT OATH Class of 2022

As the students of the Charles E. Schmidt College of Medicine

Class of 2022, we vow:

To maintain the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty, and accountability.

To approach patient care holistically, including physical, emotional, spiritual, and mental health.

To recognize cultural differences and respect patient autonomy.

To cultivate an environment founded upon trust and confidentiality.

To be committed to our well-being, in order to best serve our community.

To establish a collaborative environment, fostering comradery and teamwork.

To strive for improvement through self-reflection and lifelong learning.

To practice within the scope of our expertise, seeking guidance when necessary.

To contribute to medicine through innovation and discovery.

To serve altruistically, with humility and compassion.

By embodying these tenets, we will commit ourselves to a life that will bring honor to our profession.
